THE REAL ROAD TO MIAMI BEGINS AS THE 11-0 NASHVILLE STORM TAKES ON THE ASHEVILLE GRIZZLIES (7-1) SATURDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 17 AT STRATFORD- MAYOR KARL DEAN TO BE STORM'S HONORARY CAPTAIN

THE TEAMS- The Nashville Storm (11-0) play their first game of the 2009 NAFL Playoffs against the Asheville Grizzlies (7-1), a highly talented and well-coached NAFL rival. The 2 teams last met in the 2008 NAFL playoffs, with the Storm winning 47-27.

THE STAKES- The winner of this game will play the winner of the St. Louis Bulldogs- Bay Area Gamblers playoff game for the NAFL South Championship on Saturday night, October 24. The 2009 season will end for the loser. If the Nashville Storm are the winner, the NAFL South Championship Game on October 24 will be played in Nashville at Stratford High School.

THE OPPONENT- The Asheville Grizzlies have abundant talent on both sides of the football and a Hall of Fame Head Coach in Phil Lytle. On offense, RB Cortez Oliver (Benedict College) is one of the premier running backs in NAFL history. The QB is Frank Meade, a strong-armed and accurate passer who is also an elusive runner. In 2008, the Nashville Storm defense only gave up 4 TD passes all season. Meade threw 3 of them. On defense, the Grizzlies are led by LBs Thomas Brunson (North Carolina State) and Travis Colston (University of Tennessee). All in all, the Grizzlies present a strong challenge in the Storm's first 2009 playoff appearance.

HONORARY CAPTAIN- The Nashville Storm are pleased to announce that the Nashville Storm's Honorary Captain for this game will be METROPOLITAN NASHVILLE MAYOR KARL DEAN. Mayor Dean will join the Nashville Storm's captains at the center of the field for the game's opening coin toss.

THE PLACE- Buster Boguskie Stadium at Stratford High School (1800 Stratford Avenue, Nashville, TN 37216).

THE TIME- Saturday night, October 17, 2009; Admission gate opens at 6 PM, Kickoff will be at 7 PM.
